

Kapiti Bowling Club - mini newsletter 9/02/17

Members of KBC, and the wider Kapiti bowling community, will be saddened to hear of Ross Calderwood's death this week. Ross made a notable contribution to the club in a range of roles over many years and we have missed his active participation in recent times. A memorial service for Ross is being held at Kapiti Coast Funeral Home Chapel, Hinemoa Street, Paraparaumu on Saturday 11th February at 2.30pm.

Melva Ritson Trophy Congratulations on your win to the members of the KBC teams that were selected to play in the competitions today. Wednesday's team - Tere, Noeleen, Timeri & Maureen and Thursday - Claire, Rosemary, Janet & Jane.

Community Bowls begin on Sunday 19th February – 5pm. Helpers needed on the day. Please phone Pat if you are able to help.

Hexagonal Rep Team BKC Congratulations to Pat Taylor who has been selected for this team to play on the weekend of 18th & 19th February at Palmerston North.

Patron's Gala Progressive mixed triples – Wednesday 15th February 10.30 start. Entries on blackboard please – closing on Tuesday 14th Feb at 10.00am. Prizes for skip, three and lead

Johnny Walker Mixed Pairs Entries on blackboard in clubhouse - twilight competition 5pm on Wednesday 1st March

Centre Open Fours This weekend 11, 12 & 13th February. We have 2 men's teams playing at Central Levin & a women's team at Waikanae Beach and another at Raumati South.

Semi's and finals in the next 3 weeks There will be some great games for spectators – please come along and give the players some support

Men's Champ Singles Final Cliff Thomas vs John Randle - Saturday 18th February at 2.00pm

Mixed Pairs Semi and final will be played on Saturday 18th February starting at 9.00am

Junior men and women's singles Semi and finals play on Sunday 26th February

INVITATION TO ALL MEMBERS

Friday 24th February at 3.30pm

Discussion and information session at the club

Answers and discussion on all those little details of bowling etiquette & rules

This session is planned for everyone – not just newer players – is a refresher really – rules have changed and this is a good opportunity to check up on these.

Followed by Friday drinks and a BBQ